

Dimensions: (L x W x H): 1380 x 1290 x 280mm

Key Features

This Polyethylene Barrel Bund suitable for use with 205L drums. Making the bunds ideal for storing aggressive chemicals. The final stages of The Control of Pollution (Oil Storage) Regulations 2001, came into effect on 1st September 2005. Anyone storing oil in containers greater than 200L is affected by the regulations. Any tank, container or drum must be banded. The bund must have a capacity of not less than 110% of the largest or 25% of the total aggregate storage capacity, whichever is greater.

Technical Specification

- Suitable for storing two 205L drums
- Features 250L spill tray, compatible with most forklifts and pallet trucks
- Lightweight construction for easy transportation and positioning, yet still strong and durable
- Manufactured from high-density polyethylene, suitable for use with 205L drums. Making the bunds ideal for storing aggressive chemicals
- Drum Capacity: 4x 205L